Comments about You'll Understand - Ross From Friends

• Riavay

Not every song make me sad and nostalgic like Bootman.It talks me about my first love. Energetic EP, Ross From Friends now and ever. Great guy, nice taste, superb music.

• Wetiwavas

Took me like 5 minutes to realize that the A side is not 33

• Bragis

My copy sounds perfect - no pops/not warped/not muffled. Maybe I just got lucky?

• FailCrew

My copy also sounds fine, nothing to decline here... ..

• Sha

Just received my copy direct from Lobster via Bandcamp. The A side on mine has several (2) loud pops. B side sounds as intended I believe.

• Manris

I get what you're saying, but that's not it. It's missing from the digital version.

• Nten

its lo fi house mate deal with it... i think u got what u paid for

• Mayno

Obviously it is meant to sound like this because it is meant to sound like tape recorded. Otherwise the guy involved in the mastering has missed the muted hi.-pass filter. nonetheless all tracks are super functional and with delicious artful simplicity.

- Mavegar

A side sounds ok, B side though, sounds muffled and just plain bad, i checked 2 copies. there's a clearly audible difference from digital tracks, which i just dont understand, even considering the format capabilities

- furious ox

Copy from Juno warped to hell :( three more words

- Best West

my copy got a lot of noise on all the tracks, how about yours? is that normal? it's really really harsh, seems to be a low signal to noise ratio, really strange

- Vishura

If it sounds like tape hiss, then it is probably intentionally added. Compare it to a digital file

- Risinal

well it is lo-fi house, what did you expect? /s

- Galubel

EP of the year right here. And for all of you writing those last minute articles about the Lo-fi style, please remember that the track that started all this was actually Florian Kupfer's - Feelin'

- HelloBoB:D

I have all 3 versions and that last press was remastered to sound even better on a club system ;)

- Tujar

that has been remastered because the first version sounded too lo fi also for a lo fi lover :)

- VariesWent

The Lo-fi house style is very trendy right now... but this record is one of the most sublime examples!

- Meri

HAWAII003 successfully pressed. Coming in time for christmas! It's a miracle, bless!

- SkroN

'If your query concerns HAWAII003. We are still trying to sort out good test presses. Hopefully should receive the run by the end of November, beginning of December. This pressing has been particularly difficult for some reason!'

- Inth

how they looking? pre-ordered back in March and hoping they come before summer of next year :p

- Vudozilkree

sounds excellent. cant wait!! some more words words words words

- Taulkree

Delayed again to December. This must be really stressful for both Ross From Friends and Lobster Theremin. I definitely want the best product possible so I respect their decision to keep pushing it back. Anyway, this release is a lot of fun! All tracks are energetic and have a really nice groovy to them. Can't wait to get my copy and I think it will be worth the wait.

- Moogura

isn't Gettin' It Done kickdrum perfect? love this piece !

- Virn

this will be a beast of a record!! just the two tracks i could listen to are easily under the best i heard in times (in this genre) ... so simple yet so beauty-/powerfulUPDATE: HAWAII003

- Adorardana

Hi, any updates, or did I just miss the release and all sold out already? I need this... :(
