Paul Mac was a deeply good choice for mastering here.

When I heard about the repress I was a bit mad at myself, I spent a good CAD$60 on this original copy version before I knew. But when it came in the mail I completely realized that it didn't matter; this EP is 100% worth it. Easily one of my top 10 favourite records of all time, up there with classics like OK Computer and Siamese Dream. I never thought something so insanely brilliant and sonically deep would come out of literally fucking nowhere. Thank god for 1080p. I'd rate higher than 10/10 if I could.

- Cenneel

any plans to repress this one? Aletheia is ridiculously brilliant and probably the most overlooked on the ep, my favourite of the four tracks by far

- Mave

Any news on the repress yet? :) word word word

- Rishason

Dunno how I missed this one. Just listened for the first time and I agree, Aletheia is easily my favourite cut. Glad to see there's a repress in the works!

- sobolica

Repress is getting pushed back a bit, should be available in the next couple of months. Apologies for the delay !

- Dangerous

You never know if the repress will really happen, or if the sound quality will be the same, etc.

- Goldendragon

Fuck, I literally just dropped $61 on this. Why didn't I read before buying

- Yozshugore

sunnyb This will be repressed on Temple Records late 2017/early 2018. This is the best news of the year. ≈ thank ≈

- Goodman

Thank you, this news made me so happy! Love aletheia and the title track, so relaxing :)

- Gaua

This will be repressed on Temple Records late 2017/early 2018.

Only "Blue Smoke" is really great on this EP. That track could be played by Kruder & Dorfmeister or Patrick Forge. It's very pretty, but speaking of an "immeasurable and multifaceted depth" is a bit exaggerated. The other tracks are not bad, they use nice sounds and are reminiscent of UK deep electro. But the melodies are a bit simple and don't stick in your mind. Get it for "Blue Smoke" though, if you see it.

- Fountain_tenderness

blue smoke is brilliant but aletheia is even better imo

- Justie

Slept on this one and only have myself to blame. Hopefully 1080p make this available again, as blue smoke really is an incredible slice of music - it has an immeasurable and multifaceted depth to it, the likes of which I haven't heard from this label since the lnrdcroy tape. Buy this if you see it.

- Zovaithug

This is something special right here. Ridiculously good ambient vibes. One of, if not THE best 1080p 12" yet. If i could rate it higher, I would.

- Priotian

Blue smoke is an incredible, hypnotic cut... the most soothing of breaks - one of my favourite records of the year so far

- adventure time

Serious SAW I and II vibes sunk into this one. Pairs well with Planet Earth II trailer.

- Tebei

Blue Smoke is ridiculous. Blue Smoke is ridiculous. Blue Smoke is ridiculous.

- blodrayne

Too true. Too true. Too true. Too true. Too true.

- Dodo

up there with lnrdcry as one of the best 1080p releases yet

- Mot

these cuts are full of rhythm and ambience... love it. must have.

- Fearlesshunter

This is a really great record. The music is inspired by the music of Terre Thaemlitz. Deep and atmospheric stuff.

- Gabar

where did you get the idea it's inspired by Terre? More early things come to mind?
