- The Sinners from Mitar

Been 3 years now. Can we get a part 2 ;)

- Tebei

Tune, after tune, after tune! This is now my favourite from my collection. I can see this turning from Mint to VG in no time at all, should have bought another copy. Massive shout out to KVA for rolling out another great release on vinyl. Keep them coming and we'll keep buying.

- Arith

So glad I grabbed this 3 plate compilation. Its stuffed full of the cream of Hardcore/Jungle Techno/D&B/Jungle brilliance. Im so happy to finally get my hands on the seminal Motions VIP let alone the other beauties on here including Searching, Paradox & Changing. Any ideas when Volume 2 will be hitting the shelves?

- Cae

Thank you for giving this a repress, not gonna miss this one again

- Flamekiller

Greedy pikey scalpers go get a job

- Gtonydne

Repress available to pre order from kva website now , a big HAHA to all the greedy scalpers selling this for treble the value

- Onnell

Its all about supply and demand and its worth what people are prepared to pay. And for these tracks new and remastered for me its worth every penny of the £100 i paid. Try getting all these tracks in mint original condition and guess what you would have to pay....?

- Survivors

No as I said that's what I was prepared to pay at the time and I still think its worth that. You'll probably find the second batch will sell out pretty quickly also especially as I just ordered 100 copies lol. So why don't KVA limit the numbers of copies you can order? that would prevent this happening surely? and I thought this was meant to be a limited edition..uumm!!

- Gardataur

oldskoolboshers Its all about supply and demand and its worth what people are prepared to pay. And for these tracks new and remastered for me its worth every penny of the £100 i paid. Try getting all these tracks in mint original condition and guess what you would have to pay....? Ouch. Thats got to hurt now you can get it for £30. Thanks Will for the repress

- Jelar

Quality! Quality! Quality! Such a shame that The Quickening from RUGGED 7 and The Genesis Project weren't included too but if you own this and haven't read the run-out etchings, one suggests that you do so now. You'll find a lovely little surprise that was mentioned somewhere in these forums way back when it was first announced.

- Uste

Boys. Repress. Please. This music needs to be heard again. YOU KNOW

- Pad

Just had to make a quick comment about this fantastic collection; the sound quality is just amazing!

- Daiktilar

"Legendary hardcore and jungle reissue label Sublogic/Keeping Vinyl Alive drop a triple pack of crucial early to mid 90's hardcore from the near mythical group of Beau Thomas, Dan Duncan & Simon Vispi aka Intense/Babylon Timewarp/Whitehouse Crew. Freshly remastered and re-cut to vinyl by Beau, Intense's productions are the music of legendary status within the jungle and hardcore scene and original copies of these tunes currently sell for crazy money on Discogs. But now thanks to the good folk at KVA they are available once again for a new audience to discover and for OG fans to relive some of that magic."

- Frey

Never thought I'd own a few of these tunes, especially the Whitehouse Crew tune and missed Para Time Continuum as well! Nice to see some other unreleased gems like Motions VIP and Searching also- great tunes! Big up's Beau, Will, Intense, and KVA! This set is a great highlight in one of the best years in a long time for the scene.

- Yozshugore

A second run of 150 copies is available to pre order now and expected on 24th January 2016 for those wanting a copy.

- Steep

At long last, after months of anticipation, this has just now arrived at my address. I'm really happy, Christmas definitely has come early for me (and probably for everyone else who had the good taste to buy this). This release seems to be well made and as far as I can tell I can confirm these were pressed from original DAT recordings and are not from vinyl rips (like "some" people are doing). I've been after Para Time Continuum since I first heard it on the limited Sublogic release, but I missed that one and now that record sells for silly money, so to get this release was a godsend. Not even to mention all the other unreleased goodies and of course the timeless Time Space Continuum which was in fact one of the very first tunes (literally) that got me hooked on oldskool so many years ago (which is even more too expensive to buy these days). Really happy with this release, good job! Also, thank you very much to Intense and KVA for their additional generous act, that really was unexpected, thanks a lot! Unfortunately, despite being shipped in strong and secure packaging, the idiot postman still managed to bend the corner, leaving the sleeve bent, the records seem fine but I can't claim to have a mint copy now, gutted! Nevermind, I'm just happy I was able to get the tunes at all.

- Dikus

Great reissue from Keeping Vinyl Alive (a sub label of Sublogic) on heavyweight vinyl. One for the lovers of the incredibly talented work of Intense. A work that spans different eras (from the early hardcore days up to the atmospheric pinnacle of the late 90s). Big props to Will Sublogic to put a lot of love and hard work into these projects; it's a crying shame that there are always those sellers who want to speculate at the expenses of the music lovers. It's one of the downfalls of the so called "free market". Avoid these sellers at all cost.
