Comments about For Emma, Forever Ago - Bon Iver

- Hiylchis

So funny watching people try and flip this... still available from the official store folks

- Nuadabandis

How much! come on.....

<https://boniver.org/store/us/14266/preorder-limited-edition-for-emma-forever-ago-lp-us> $25 (bit more in the UK/EU).

- Geny

The 10th Anniversary show was the first night they sold this. I was told it is a release of 10K, so hardly limited.

- Perius

This was for sales at the London shows last night. So hardly that limited. There was also an Orange 22 Million LP - that is not on discogs.

- Pedora

Does it say who mastered this release? Can someone confirm that the barcode is on a sticker and not printed on the cover?

- Moralsa

The barcode is on a sticker on the plastic wrap, I confirm.

- FEISKO

Mastered by Nick Peterson at Track and Field in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

- Buge

I have the 10 yr anniversary CD version, can't see that on Discogs. Barcode is definitely a sticker on the back, nothing on the CD itself. Don't know about Vinyl.

- Rrd

Can anyone report if this sounds better/worse than the original vinyl release? Appreciate it!

- Oghmaghma

mine the same sounds amazing, except restocks - slight distortion. compared to the original it is BEAUTIFUL

- Tall

I'd like to know if it has the brushing / whooshing sounds that the other pressings have. Anybody with a good ear and system...?

- Iseared

It sounds GREAT. A few pops and clicks, but I have NOT cleaned or vacuumed it yet, either. Very little surface. A delight from front to back.

- ME

yes, I'd love to know if it sounds better as well.

- Ffan

My copy sounds BEAUTIFUL, except that "re:stacks" has just a little surface noise. I haven't heard any other pressings, but I'd say this one's a winner

- Coiril

I also wish to know if it sounds better (word)

- Wafi

I haven't opened mine yet, I'll let you know soon

- Renthadral

Who says this one is limited to 500 copies? I've never heard of that. And still sold on their website.

- Lanionge

Might be a bit of a stretch to say that the pressing was pressed for that show specifically.

- Defolosk

I was at the show that this pressing was pressed for, in Milwaukee. The venue holds about 20,000 people and it seemed like every other person that night had a copy of this on LP, so this "500" number is just laughable. It's limited, sure, but there are a TON out there.

- Perongafa

It appears that it's sold out on the website now.

- Danial

Agreed that the press quantity is unknown. Here is what the email from Bon Iver said about it when on prerelease, "we are thrilled to announce a limited edition reissue of For Emma . . . on LP & CD. The reissue includes new artwork and a reflective in-depth essay written by Trever Hagen. The reissue will be available worldwide on February 16, 2018 exclusively through boniver.org and at the FOR EMMA, TEN YEAR merch table."

- Thabel

Yeah, there was no announced limitation. Please enter at least 4 more
